Who We Are

Hawaii Living is a boutique real estate firm focusing on smart marketing solutions custom-tailored for your home. Our team of dynamic agents is highly qualified with diverse professional and multi-language skills.

You will enjoy superior results with uncompromising personalized service and the latest innovative cutting-edge technology.

Maximizing Results

Are you looking to get top dollar for your property in the shortest amount of time? Together we will optimize the ideal strategy to help you achieve your goal.

We carefully examine your home and propose options to maximize sales results. Uncluttering, renovating, or staging your home, with our network of qualified professionals we effectively improve your home's salability.

Our friendly concierge service helps simplify your life before, during, and after the sale.

Smart Marketing

Our distinctive national and international marketing targets the right buyer profile for your home. In collaboration with an established global network, we ensure the world sees your property.

We take great pride in operating Oahu's most celebrated real estate website receiving more than 100,000 visits per month. Our popular site has been translated into Japanese and Korean.
